

Occupational Safety and Health Manager Program

INTRODUCTION

This program is designed for corporate and facility safety managers or directors and to those staff who are responsible for integrating and managing the corporate OSH function. Emphasis is placed on gaining the knowledge and skills to design, develop and deploy a world-class safety management system.

The program consists of different courses/modules that will help students to have an overview, theoretical knowledge and be exposed to different classroom activities to help them understand the context of the program.

The course ultimate goal is to help people be an effective Manager and understand different leadership styles to apply and be a safety Manager. The program is designed to help candidates:

Be aware of what it takes to have that management commitment in safety

Understand the employer responsibilities to have a safety committee operation Identify accident investigation procedure

Understand the nature of hazard and how to eliminate and substitute it Learn different leadership and supervisor skills that best suit in the safety

Build and establish standards of performance Develop safety strategies that in line to standards and applicability

Course Contents:

Module 1 Introduction to Safety Management

Module 2 Effective Safety Committee Operations

Module 3 Effective Accident Investigation

Module 4 Safety Supervision and Leadership

Module 5 Safety Management System Evaluation

Module 6 Emergency Action Plans

Module 7 Fire Prevention Plans

Module 8 Fleet Safety Management

Module 9 Ergonomics Program Management