VALUE ADDED TAX

COURSE OUTLINE

Overview: Why choose this course?

Tax is a means by which governments receive revenues to cover the costs of public services, such as hospitals, public schools and universities, and defense. Value Added Tax (VAT) is one of the most common consumption taxes around the world, with more than 150 countries applying VAT. All countries in the Gulf are currently working on the finalization of the Value Added Tax Law, which is expected to be implemented in some countries as of January 1st, 2018. This will help the country to strengthen its economy by diversifying its revenue sources in isolation from oil revenues.
